Pastor Well Known In Torrance Dies

Monday afternoon at the First Evangelical Church, Los Angeles, was held the funeral of Rev. A. H. Butzbach, pastor of the Evangelical Church of San Bernardino.

Rev. Butzbach was well known to many of the people of Torrance, as he spoke several times here in the Evangelical Church, and he and Mrs. Butzbach were frequent visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Zeller, former college friends.

Rev. Butzbach spent 20 years in China conducting missions for his church. He pioneered in establishing two missions, one at Chen Chow Fu, Human, and another at Tungjen, Kwei Chow. He was well known and much loved throughout his own denomination and was also highly respected in the missionary councils of China. His strenuous activities there broke his health prematurely, and he died at the age of 53.

Mrs. Butzbach and her sister, Mrs. J. W. Stauffacher, recently from Kijabe, British East Africa, are spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Zeller at the Evangelical parsonage.

Sam Levy Will

For Grocery Co.

Ten-Year Lease on Sartori Avenue Property Signed

Sam Levy announced yesterday that he will begin the construction of a new business building for a Piggly Wiggly grocery store on Sartori avenue as soon as plans can be drawn.

The new building will be located on the lot between Sam Levy's and Huddleston's furniture store. The Piggly Wiggly Company has signed a ten-year lease on the property with Mr. Levy.

Auxiliary Will Sell
Home-Cooked Foods

Food sale! All kinds of good home cooking, luscious pies, feather cakes, substantial salads, meat loaf—oh, well, you all know the variety and quality of the goods the American Legion Auxiliary puts out.

Come down to the Safeway meat market Saturday, Sept. 18, and get your share of the goodies. Mrs. Jensen will have charge, and the money goes to buy linens for the new Legion clubhouse.

C. E. Members Will Take Pot Luck

Members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Evangelical Church will gather tonight for a pot-luck supper, to be followed by a business session.

Hostess Becomes Honor Guest at Surprise Shower

Mrs. Mable Trimm was guest of honor at a surprise shower which followed the meeting Monday night of the officers of the Women's Benefit Association. The affair was held at Mrs. Trimm's home.

Young People's Club Has Social Evening

The Young Married Folks' Dinner Club held an enjoyable affair last Friday evening in Central Evangelical Guild Hall.

A pot-luck dinner was followed by an evening of music and games.

Baptist Ladies Have All-Day Meet

The ladies of the Baptist Church held an all-day meeting at the church Tuesday. The morning was devoted to the activities of the Ladies' Aid Society.

After a luncheon served at noon, matters pertaining to the Missionary Society were discussed.

Boy Scouts Will Take Tests Friday

Scout tests for Torrance Boy Scouts will be given on Friday afternoon at the Scout building located near the new American Legion hall. Scouts not ready to pass are asked to come, as instruction as well as test passing will be conducted.

Troop 3 will resume its regular meetings tomorrow evening at the Scout building.

Troop 4 has resumed its meetings on Tuesday evenings at the Scout building. Next Tuesday the troop will entertain a San Pedro troop and each member of the local troop is asked to bring a prospective member.

BRIEF NEWS

Charles Mechlin of Tulsa, Okla., spent from Friday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George D. Watson of Andree avenue. Mr. Mechlin, a prominent oil man of Oklahoma, was called to Los Angeles by the illness of his mother, who died Friday. Mr. Mechlin accompanied the body to Casper, Wyo., for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Leake and family have returned to their home in Crothers, after a week's visit at the home of Mr. Leake's brother, Dr. Norman A. Leake.

New Air Mail Line Starts Service

Of particular interest to local folks is the fact that Vern Gorst, president of the Motor Coach Company, is also vice-president of the Pacific Air Transport, the air mail line of the Pacific coast.

Present yesterday morning at 12:03 o'clock when the first plane hopped off with mail for Seattle and intervening points were H. N. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jorgensen, of Torrance, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Owens, of Lomita, all members of the Motor Coach organization.

The "Pat," the longest air mail line in the United States, covers the 1100-mile route in 14 hours, a saving of 41 hours over the train schedule.

Winchester Club Enjoys Social Affair

The Winchester Club meeting at the Surf and Sand Club last evening was a delightful affair, and was attended by the twelve dealers of this district, their clerks and families.

The Reeve orchestra—Miss Helen Reeve, Walter Zuber, John Fiesel and Bert Grant—furnished music for the occasion.

J. S. Payne, president of the Winchester-Simmons Company, was a guest of honor. Local folks who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Reeve, of the Torrance Hardware Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve.

Millinery Classes
Monday Each Week

Mrs. Effie Jane Hayden, millinery teacher of art classes, announces that classes will be held at the Torrance High School each Monday from 1 to 5 p. m.; at Lomita Tuesday, 1 to 5; at Gardena Thursday, 1 to 5; at Wilmington Friday, 1 to 5.

Classes will be held at Narbonne High School at Lomita every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 until 9.

C. M. Mackenzie returned Monday from a fishing and hunting trip in Inyo County. He says he got the limit of everything.

Lights Installed at Tennis Courts

Lights have been installed at the high school tennis courts, which will be open to the public until 10 o'clock each night.

The courts are closed to the public during school hours—from 8 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.

MRS. SILENCE BETTER

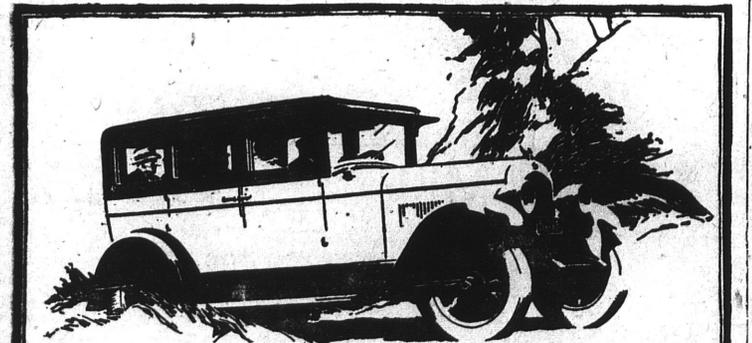

Mrs. W. C. Silence is at her home and rapidly recovering from a serious illness. Mrs. Silence has expressed deep appreciation of the lovely flowers sent to her during her illness, and of the beautiful floral pieces sent at the time of her daughter's death.

L. W. Jorgensen of the Motor Coach organization has returned from a three-weeks vacation in Alamitos.

Casey's Nine Will Play Calpet Lads

Casey's Raspberries and the Drilling Department team of the California Petroleum Corporation will play ball Monday afternoon, Sept. 20, on the Standard Oil grounds on the Dominguez lease.

Humpty Dumpty
Cabrillo and Sartori, Torrance

In California, as in other climates, much food buying is done by Milady! She does it in person for the zest of it; these hazy days of Indian Summer make you feel keen enjoyment in getting in the open. The fresh clean stocks of nationally known foods displayed in a "HUMPTY DUMPTY" store, where you may inspect them at first hand, read the labels on the cans, study the prices prominently displayed over each item, makes the problem of choosing a meal an easy one; courteous attendants to total your purchases and assist you, if you wish, to your car, makes shopping at my store a pleasure.
